
ADMINISTRATIVE MEMORANDUM

TO : ALL CONCERNED
SUBJECT : AAVA ENDORSEMENT FOR BARANGAY CLEARANCE

In compliance with the additional requirement for securing permits with the local government, we have consolidated our AAVA endorsement letter for securing Barangay Clearance into one form, which includes the application and the endorsement itself. See the Application for Endorsement for Barangay Clearance Form (AEBC Form) at the back hereof.

1. The applicant must be a bonafide resident and/or property owner of Ayala Alabang Village Association. If a lessee, the applicant must secure a written permit / approval from the owner for the use of the owner's address for communication purpose.
2. The applicant must accomplish the form and write the data needed in boxes 1 to 5.
3. After which the CERD/Admin shall process the form by writing the required data needed in boxes 6 to 8.
4. AAVA shall charge a non-refundable processing fee of fifty pesos (P100.00) for every application.
5. The applicant is reminded that securing AAVA endorsement using his/her residence as business address is limited for communication purposes with 2 personnel only. The said endorsement is not a permit for the applicant to use his / her residence as a venue for schools, shops, clinics, warehousing of merchandise of commercial quantity for selling and other commercial activities that will create disturbance and annoyance of the neighborhood, or business office that caters to several clientele whose vehicles will utilize the parking areas meant for residents.
6. The endorsement is non-transferable.
7. The Association has the right not to issue endorsement to applicant with dubious transactions, businesses or residential turned into commercial purposes which the Association deem illicit and against the Philippine Laws.

For your information and strict compliance.

Thank you,

ZAKE R. MARIBBAY
